SLEET AND RAIN.

The Damage to Telephone and Telegraph Wires—The Thaw.

Saturday night Decatur people were given a pointed reminder of the destructive icy visitor of February, 1883, by a second edition of rains and sleet which but for the fortunate rising temperature of Sunday morning would have done damage aggregating thousands of dollars. There was a stiff breeze and rain fell steadily all through Saturday night, coming from the east, freezing as it fell giving the east sides of buildings a coating of ice a quarter of an inch thick. Trees were enveloped in ice and many weak branches were broken off, while small trees generally were bowed down with the weight. Telegraph and telephone wires were broken and twisted by the weight of the sleet. Sunday morning Exchange, found that he had 90 wires out of shape, with no connection to outside points. He got his men at work and lost no time in making repairs. Nearly all of the wires will be in working order by to-night. The Republican wire was torn from its fastening, but righted up temporarily this morning. Only one of the 10 telegraph wires in the Western Union office was working on Sunday night. That was the St. Louis wire. Generally the wires were down outside of Decatur, or crossed, so that they were useless. Linemen were at work Sunday and to-day repairing the breaks and making connections. The service will be in proper shape at the earliest possible moment. The Washed had but two wires in shape Sunday morning—one to Buffalo, Ill., and one to Ocaso, Ill. The trainmen from the north say that the sleet was heavier in the northern part of the state, as indicated by the broken telegraph poles, broken cross-arms and fallen trees.

The thaw set in before Sunday noon and by night nearly all of the sleet had disappeared from the buildings, walks and trees.

Arrested.

This forenoon Marshal Mason and Officer Bailey arrested John A. Kagy, a young man who has been working near Oresana. He was taken in on a telegram that came from the sheriff of Marion county, received this morning. He was in company with Andrew McGrath, who has been working for J. S. Shesid, of Oresana. Both young men were taken to the jail. McGrath, who happened to have a revolver in his possession that once belonged to Kagy, was all broken up when he was taken in charge, but the officers concluded that he had simply been caught in bad company and let him go. Kagy's crime is not known. An officer will come after him.

HARRY STALEY was the pitcher for the Whites against the Browns in a game of base ball at St. Louis on Sunday. The Whites were shut out 8 to 0. The Globe-Democrat says Staley is the best pitcher in the Western League. Right you are. But 8 to 0! "Oh, Doctor, doctor!"

Niantic Republicans.

The Republicans of Niantic held their primary Saturday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by A. W. Wells, chairman of the committee. The following named gentlemen were nominated as candidates for township officers: Supervisor, Darius Buckles; town clerk, Ben Herrod; assessor, Robert Moore; collector, W. R. Dingman; commissioner of highways, George Wree; justice of peace, Charles Powner. After nominating town officers the convention proceeded to select delegates to the county convention and also to select a chairman for the township.

A. W. Wells and Dee Buckles were chosen to represent the township as delegates.

A. W. Wells was the unanimous choice of the convention for chairman, there being no opposition.

Political.

Republican primaries Friday night. Delegates to the township and county conventions to be held on Saturday will be selected.

The Sangamon county Republican central committee on Saturday named April 30th as the date for nominating county officers and appointing delegates to the state and congressional conventions. The chairman of the committee was authorized to appoint fifteen delegates to represent the county in the judicial convention at Decatur April 12th, and they were instructed to support Judge W. L. Gross for the nomination for supreme judge.

The Republican primary for Tisno township, held on Saturday, instructed its delegates to the county convention for Francis M. Wright, of Urbana, for governor; Milton W. Matthews for state senator for the Thirtieth district; Wm. G. Brown for circuit clerk of Champagne county, and Charles H. Kienle for state's attorney. A full township ticket was also nominated.

A well attended meeting of the DeWitt county Republican central committee held at Clinton Saturday, resulted in the appointment of Messrs. Warner, Ingham, Booth, Lemon and Harris, as delegates to the Decatur judicial convention. They go free to support Reeves or Wilkin, but it is probable that Col. Reeves will receive the support of the delegation. The county convention will be called April 23, to select delegates to the state, county, district and congressional conventions.

On Sunday Rev. W. H. Prostley, of this city, occupied the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian church at Springfield, when he delivered the annual Straw-bridge sermon. His theme was "God's Love Commended in the Death of Christ." The Springfield papers of to-day give considerable space to a synopsis of the sermon.

Tax funeral of Robbie E. Miller, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Miller, took place on Sunday afternoon from the family residence on South Water street, Rev. T. W. Pinkerton, of the Christian church, officiating, John E. Patterson leading in the singing. There was a large attendance of sympathizing friends. Burial at Greenwood.

The Club Concert.

Thursday evening comes the Michigan University Glee Club of 16 members, who will give a vocal concert at the opera house, singing university and old songs that will bring back fond memories of other days. Seats will be on sale to-morrow morning.

$300 Damage.

The alley wall at Charles M. Caldwell's livery stable on West Main street took a tumble this morning at 5 o'clock and fell outward into the alley, doing damage estimated at $300. The alley building was put up 30 years ago by Mr. Priest, and it is now apparent that the alley wall was poorly constructed, had brick and worse mortar. The rains beat against it, froze and thawed out. There was comparatively little weight on the wall, and simply because of poor masonry the wall bulged out and fell. There was no injury to horses in the stalls on that side of the barn. Randall, Troutman & Converse are at work rebuilding the wall.

John Morrison Dead.

The death of John Y. Morrison, stepson of W. T. Evans, occurred this morning at 4:30 o'clock at 631 North Water street, aged 34 years. Pleuro-pneumonia was the cause of his death. The deceased was born at Dyersville, North Carolina, August 2, 1853. He has held the position of book-keeper at E. D. Bartholomew & Co's store, and was widely known as a traveling salesman for the Decatur Tank Line company.

Confirmation.

On Sunday forenoon confirmation ceremonies were observed at the German Lutheran church when 11 girls, all dressed in white, and 12 boys, all of the age of 14 years, were received into the church by Rev. Geo. F. Landgraf.

Death on Ducks.

Norman Pringle, J. A. and Bert Merigweather are home from Mercedino, where they spent four days of last week shooting ducks—Mallards, Canvas-backs and Teals. As usual they met with great success, bringing down no less than 200 in the three days of fairly good weather. Ducks are diamonds these days, selling at $12 a dozen. Norman, Jack and Bert brought home over 100 Mallards, which they have distributed among their friends whose gratitude for the kindly remembrance is unbounded.

Sorelet Fever at Niantic.

Little Russell, the only son of C. B. and Mamie Richardson, aged 4 years, died of sorelet fever this morning at Niantic. He was taken sick at 12 o'clock p. m. Sunday. Dr. Hall's babe is lying very low, his little 4 year old girl having died a few days ago. There are several other cases in town, and nearly all the grown people have the disease in a light form. All complain of sore throat, headache and sick at stomach. There is no school being held in the town, and people are keeping their children out of the streets. The town is greatly excited at present. Martin Orbert, of the county, is also very sick with same disease. He is 23 years old.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Rev. Geo. E. Platt, of Sullivan, arrived in the city to-day.

State's Attorney Vail and his sons are home from Beaudetown, Ill.

The Rev. D. S. Johnson, of Springfield, occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, preaching two sermons to good congregations. Rev. Johnson's topic in the evening was the importance of uniting with the church, which he presented in a very forcible and effective manner.

Come Again.

It was unfortunate alike for the MacCollin comic opera company and Decatur lovers of music that the weather was so wretchedly bad Friday and Saturday, so inclement that it was a matter of surprise that so many people found their way through the rain and sleet to the opera house. Saturday afternoon "The Beggar Student" was given before a fair sized audience in a manner that was highly pleasing, the solos and grand choruses delighting everybody. At night "The Musketeers" was the bill, in which Miss Haas and Miss Hall divided the solo honors. Enthusiastic recalls were frequent. Mr. Ford and Mr. Stanley were the favorites. Mr. MacCollin was sprightly in his role of the Abbe. None of the opera were out. The troupe, which numbers 35 people, is one of the very best in musical talent, appearance and assuming that he has ever visited the city, and it would be exceedingly gratifying should Mr. MacCollin give Decatur another festival before the close of the season. With anything like good weather the hall would be crowded at each performance.

DR. R. N. MILLS ON TRIAL.

The Inside History of the Pension Fraud Case.

County Clerk Hardy who with J. S. Hewes is at Utica, N. Y., a witness in the pension fraud case against Dr. R. N. Mills, formerly of Decatur, favors the Republican with a copy of the Utica Herald of March 23, which contains this interesting statement in connection with the prosecution:

There came up for trial in the United States district court, before Judge A. C. Cox yesterday, a case which has been in the courts for a number of years and attracted considerable attention. A brief outline of the case is as follows: Francis Patterson, of Elmira, was a soldier in the 154th New York regiment, but deserted at Grove Creek soon after his enlistment. On his way to his home he caught cold in one of his eyes, which caused him considerable trouble. After remaining at home for a short time, he was more offered his services to the government, and they were accepted. It was soon discovered that he was suffering very much from his eyes, and he was sent to the Dupont hospital and there to the hospital at Elmira, where his disease was pronounced incurable. An attempt was made to obtain a pension for him, one of the leaders in the movement being Dr. R. N. Mills. The claim was undecided for five years, in spite of the fact that three affidavits in his favor by Wilkes J. Miller, who now says they were false. Upon an affidavit of an old resident of the soldiers' home at Bath, Captain Edward Porter, the pension was granted, and Mills drew $3000 a year. Miller, one of the signers of the affidavit, then wanted the $100 and the "best out of clothes in Elmira," promised him for his share in the work. Mills flatly refused to keep his promise and wanted to know what Miller was going to do about it. Miller commenced in a very systematic way to "square himself" with his opponent, and the result was that he told everything he knew to City Editor James H. Callahan, of the Elmira Tribune, who published a long account of it in his paper, and gave the long accounts a clue which resulted in Mills being arrested in Virginia. Wilkes J. Miller was sworn to by the Tribune, and Mills created quite a sensation by fainting in court, yesterday afternoon, the shaking spell being induced by weakness. The case was on to the next court adjourned.

Dr. Mills is indicted on two charges of fraud and two of perjury.

Free Lecture.

Rev. H. S. Jordan, of Taylorville, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The Sandwich Islands" at the Presbyterian church this (Monday) evening, March 26th, at half-past seven o'clock. A quartette choir will furnish music for the occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to enjoy this rare treat.

SUNDAY morning 30 members of Bement Commandery No. 9, Knights Templar, went to Bement on a special train, which cost the Commandery $50, to attend the funeral of the late Hon. V. S. Ruby. They arrived at Bement in the midst of rain, but did not desert duty, accompanying the remains of the brother Sir Knight to the church where Elder J. W. Robbins, assisted by Rev. Geo. Platt, of Sullivan, conducted the services. The Bement Blue Lodge of Masons had charge of the interment at the cemetery two miles from the town. The Decatur visitors came home on the special during the afternoon. Dr. W. S. Ruby, of California, did not arrive in time to attend the funeral of his brother.

"Romeo and Juliet"—Mrs. James Brown Potter.

The one great success this season is Mrs. James Brown Potter. The mention of her appearance creates enthusiasm among amusement people and the theatres are crowded wherever she plays, and this beautiful woman and talented actress pleases all who see her. "Romeo and Juliet" will be given here Wednesday evening. Mrs. Potter's support is excellent, headed by the accomplished actor, Mr. Kyrie Bellver, late leading man at Wallace's Theatre, New York. The N. Y. Tribune, speaking of Mrs. Potter, said:

"She is very graceful; your thin women lend themselves to this easily, and as she is earnest, pungent, intelligent and beautiful, she has a brilliant future before her."

"She is beautiful," they said as she bowed to the long, long rattle of applause that greeted her first appearance on the stage during the second act.

"Ah, she is beautiful," they said when she sat, imperial in green velvet, and sat on the stupor's chair in the third act. Beautiful! By the three diamond stars on her bosom—by the diamond star at the point of the low-cut dress seen when she turned her back—beautiful she was.

The house broke out into applause at the picture as she sat there in something like the attitude of Mrs. Siddons in Sir Joshua's painting.

"She is beautiful," indeed," they said when she came on in dark violet velvet in the last act, and whatever position she assumed, admiring eyes followed her.
